Comments:

Government:

- Respondents need to satisfy requirements in judgment:
  - o Need to post notice at facility that meets color, size, and signed requirements.
  - o Need to send letter advising all references to unlawful termination have been expunged from record.
  - o Need to mail copy of notice to employees of closed facility by end of next week.
- Needs assurance that this will be done by end of week.
- Is willing to discuss off record working out payment plan for costs and attorney fees.
- Once all terms have been complied with, will file something with Seventh Circuit and this court advising of this.

Defense advises these terms are acceptable and respondents will get this done.

Court:

- Stresses importance of complying with order.
- Satisfied respondents are taking immediate steps to satisfy judgment.
- Will enter certification order.
- Orders USMS to release respondents immediately.
